

Mechanical Engineer

Based in Smederevo

Responsibilities:

- New projects development
- Determining the technology to produce parts and assemblies
- Price calculations
- Controlling finalization of the specific project
- Introduction of new technologies and their implementation in the production

Requirements:

- University degree in Mechanical engineering
- Solid Works knowledge
- Excellent computer skills
- Profound knowledge of English
- Ability to work under pressure
- Dynamic, proactive, self-initiative person
- Excellent communication and social skills
- Experience in an international company will be considered as advantage

We are offering

- Dynamic and creative environment in the “smart factory”
- Professional development opportunities
- Remuneration according to experience and skills

If you want to pursue your career in dynamic multinational environment you can submit your CV in English electronically.

Deadline for applications: 20.10.2018.